

Contents

1 Legal basis of an invoice
Definition of an invoice	2
Definition of a credit note	2
Process documentation of the invoicing party and the invoice recipient	2
2 Legal basis of an e-invoice
Definition of an electronic invoice	4
Tax-related mandatory information on e-invoices	5
Relevant laws and administrative instructions	5
Consent of the e-invoice recipient	6
Conclusion of an EDI agreement	6
Note on subsequent invoice correction	6
Note on avoiding duplication	7
No duplicates in case of ZUGFeRD invoices	7
3 Joint requirements of the invoicing party and of the e-invoice recipient
Record keeping requirements	8
Ensuring legibility	9
Ensuring machine readability	9
Statutory record keeping period	10
Outsourcing invoicing management functions to service providers	10
Record keeping of invoices abroad	11
Risks of non-compliance with statutory record keeping obligation	11
Type and scope of the data access during a VAT audit and VAT review	11
Regulations of the Federal Data Protection Law	12
4 Specific requirements for the e-invoice recipient
General requirements on invoice verification	14
Verification of the payment claim	14
Verification of the tax-related mandatory invoice information	15
General notes on verification of integrity, correctness and authenticity	15
Special notes on verification of integrity and authenticity of ZUGFeRD invoices	15
Ensuring integrity and authenticity by means of digital signature or EDI process	15
Control annotations	16